DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 15-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sakane (US Patent NO 5,335,524).

Sakane teaches a method as claimed and teaches all profiles and RPM numbers as claimed. See entire document, especially Figure 3 and the related description and columns 1, 2, 5 and 6.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 5/24/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicants allege that Sakane does not teach setting limits of rotational speed as a function of a load parameter.

The applicants argue that Sacane teaches values of speed  $n_a$  and  $n_b$  as function of gravity and the radius of the drum.

This is not persuasive.

Sakane teaches that the limits of the rotational speed should be below of the speed determined as a function of gravity and the radius of the drum. However, Sakane neither teaches setting of the limit values of speed  $n_a$  and  $n_b$  as function of gravity and the radius of the drum, nor determining the referenced values of speed  $n_a$  and  $n_b$  as function of gravity and the radius of the drum.

Sakane teaches that the limit values of speed  $n_a$  and  $n_b$  should be 40 and 55 rpm. The examiner would not analyze how these values are determined in Sakane because the claims do not require determination of the limits of the speed.

The claims require setting the limits of the speed as a function of the load. The claims do not specify the function.

Sakane teaches determining the load and setting the required speed profile using the determined load as a function of the determined load (column 5, lines 29-50, column 6, lines 4-63, especially lines 45-53). The speed profile of the method of Sakane is the same as claimed (Figure 3). The limits of 40 rpm and 55 rpm are the same as recited by claims 20 and 21 (30-40 rpm and 50-80 rpm).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
